Project Description: Design and construction engineering of 800 feet of new roadway through an existing industrial site that was being redeveloped as a PUD for individual / commercial lots. New public right-of-way was established and easements were created to preserve rights for utilities. The project cost was $375,000 and was funded by special assessments to benefitting properties. The project included earthwork, storm sewer installation, HMA pavement, curb and gutter, sidewalks, pavement markings, and a new traffic signal.
